(Certificate No. 2.) I can say that the above certificate is true, and that it to direct so until I left, in the spring of 1845.

Chronicle is a strictly neutral paper, and is conducted to the Central Canal, and that my name is attached to said petition, I would state that this is not the fact, and further, that in my opinion, no blame whatever can be attached to Mr. Brown as Agent on said Canal. He has tached to Mr. Brown as Agent on said Canal. He has to my personal knowledge been faithful and attentive in the discharge of his duties; and no person could, under the circumstances, have given more satisfaction to all contents.

A FAITHFUL Dog. - Some years since, a family residing in one of the Southern States possessed a Newfoundland dog, which conceived a strong friendship for the little daughter of its owner. This child he used to escort regularly to school, carrying her satchhel in his mouth, and was generally at the door when the hours of her penance were over, to trot along by her side homeward.

One day, the girl, having strayed away without the knowledge of her parents, sauntered along to the water, and was amusing herself by walking upon the attention and considerable uneasiness. Frequently warned by various persons upon the wharf, to keep further from the edge, she nevertheless, with juvenile waywardness, continued her dangerous pastime, until
